DOINGS AT THE METROPOLITAN A. M. E. CHURCH.

With the Love Feast Friday night, the revival closes. From every point of view it has been very successful. More than one hundred have been added to the church.

There is every reason to believe the members will work with greater vigor than ever before.

Sunday morning, at the close of the church services, Dr. Scott will see any one wishing to consult him about the salvation of their soul. He will be in the study. To be convinced one needs only have a half hour's talk, a heart to heart talk with Dr. Scott, and hear him explain the scriptures. Come be benefited.

Sunday was quarterly meeting. Communion in the afternoon. The pulpit was occupied by Revs. Seaton, Flagg and Agbebi. Interesting services throughout the day. Mesdames Hattie Dorsey and Hattie Gray, of the stewardess board, who have been quite ill, are improving.

Miss Lettie Lee, president of the Parsonage Association, is preparing to give a children's concert at an early date.

The S. S. is having several calls from needy sources and have thus far responded promptly.

Dr. Conner is in hearty sympathy with the work of his missionary committee and never allows a cry for help pass without notice. The S. S. teachers' Bible Class is held Fridays from 7 to 8 p. m.

The Womans' Day will hold its first meeting in several weeks, Wednesday December 16th. The regular monthly meeting for the fourth Sunday will be addressed by Mrs. Mary Giles Beckett. We invite all to come to hear her; as she comes to us with a wide experience among our people of all classes. Another interesting feature of this meeting will be the presentation of a travelling or individual communion service to be used by the pastor when he gives communion to the sick. Having increased in membership, the Womans' Day will extend its work and hopes to make woman's place in the church more emphatic than before.

The C. E. holds its meetings each Sunday from 6 to 7 p. m.

Mr. Tucker and others of the missionary committee, held services in the Home and Help Mission Sunday afternoon. That's a grand work for the Young Endeavorers. The Mite Missionary Society, Mrs. Nettie Scott, president, will meet in the church parlor, Monday evening, 7 o'clock.

Kings' Daughters are making garments and soliciting groceries to meet the very old and helpless members.
